Mohit Roy, a 19-year-old from Rudrapur, Uttarakhand.

My Hobbes and my Introduction.....

secondary education with a focus on the arts and am currently pursuing a BBA LLB degree. My academic journey reflects my keen interest in the interdisciplinary study of business administration and law, aiming to equip myself with comprehensive knowledge in these fields.

Apart from academics, I am deeply passionate about sports, with karate being my favorite. This sport has instilled in me discipline, focus, and perseverance. These qualities have also translated into my interest in technology, where I have acquired a robust skill set in various programming languages. I am proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, Python, and C++, which showcases my dedication to continuous learning and adaptability in the ever-evolving tech landscape.

My diverse interests and skills, ranging from law to technology and sports, reflect my holistic approach to personal and professional growth. I aspire to leverage my legal and technical expertise to make meaningful contributions in my future career, embodying a blend of analytical thinking and creative problem-solving.
